

Espace F

Espace F is an artist centre dedicated to diffusion, cultural action and production/creation in the realm of the visual arts, in particular in the domains of photography, video and digital production. Its exhibition program bears witness to the diversity of current approaches within these modes of expression. The centre initiates and supports creative projects and promotes the development and accessibility of arts and culture at the heart of the community. Its services include specialized equipment loans and access to a large-format inkjet print workshop. Founded in 1987 and located in Matane, Quebec, Espace F is a member of the Réseau des centres d'artistes autogérés du Québec (RCAAQ) and the Conseil québécois des arts médiatiques (CQAM).
