

ImagineNATIVE Film + Media Arts Festival

imagineNATIVE is the world's largest presenter of Indigenous screen content. The organization is recognized locally, nationally, and internationally for excellence and innovation in programming and as the global centre for Indigenous media arts. imagineNATIVE (legal entity: The Centre for Aboriginal Media) is a registered charity committed to creating a greater understanding of Indigenous peoples and cultures through the presentation of contemporary Indigenous-made media art including film, video, audio and digital media.

imagineNATIVE presents new and innovative film, video, audio, and digital media works. Programming includes annual retrospectives, curated programs, community screenings and presentations of both groundbreaking and legacy works to a wide audience.

imagineNATIVE plays an important role in the dissemination and export of Indigenous works by promoting and exhibiting artists' films, videos, audio, and digital media artworks to Canadian and international festivals, markets, distributors, and broadcasters, and by facilitating sales and acquisitions.

imagineNATIVE provides Indigenous filmmakers, media artists, and curators with professional development and networking opportunities.
