

Langage Plus

Langage Plus is a contemporary art centre that places research and creation at the heart of its diverse program of exhibitions, residencies, events and pedagogical activities. The centre also contains a documentation centre and an art boutique, and rents its premises to the public.

The centre's artistic direction guides its choice of activities, which address the following issues:

- Individual and collective identity
- Territory and territorial appropriation
- The relationship between art and life, its future and role in the community
- Contemporary art discourse and its development

Langage Plus offers high-quality services to artists and the general public. Open to the world, the centre actively promotes emerging practices through its exhibitions and initiatives, encouraging experimentation and creation in all artistic disciplines.
