

Mountain Standard Time Performative Art

M: ST showcases dynamic, embodied artworks that speak to today's unique topics and reflect contemporary issues. From exhibitions and performances to workshops and biennials, M: ST is cultivating artwork within a variety of disciplines within our local and global communities. We aim to spark education and lively conversations about the ever-evolving world of contemporary performative practices.

M: ST was established in 2001 as a collaborative endeavour between several local arts organizations. To this day we connect local and global artistic communities through our unique partnerships. As a spaceless and flexible organization, we run out of our office at CommunityWise Resource Centre.
